

UPHOLD THE REPUBLIC

French Socialists Condemn the Military Conspiracy.

PLOT RUMOR RENEWED

DUKE OF ORLEANS ON THE LIST OF SUSPECTS.

Dedication of a Monument to Soldiers Who Fell in the Franco-Prussian War Causes a Demonstration in Favor of the Army—Activity of French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The dedication of a monument to the soldiers of France who fell in the Franco-Prussian war, which took place today at Chaumont, capital of the department of Haute-Marne, General Chanale, the minister of war, presided, furnishing an opportunity for a demonstration in favor of the army, which many socialists seized, marching past the monument shouting, "Vive l'armée."

The socialist party met today and denounced governmental interference with the right to strike. A resolution was adopted declaring "that the whole socialist revolutionary party is united in defense of the republic and will not permit the military conspiracy to lay its hands upon the liberty of the people."

The socialists announce that they have organized a vigilance committee, to frustrate the military conspiracy against the republic.

The arrival of the Duke of Orleans at Brussels has rekindled the rumor that a military coup was attempted.

The young English Duke of Manchester, who has just reached Paris from Australia, has been linked with the movement by certain newspapers, but he protests that he is merely a tourist.

Sultan Welcomes Our Minister.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—The sultan today gave an audience to Ambassador Straus, the new United States minister, with the customary ceremonies of reception, which was of the most cordial character. His majesty expressed pleasure at seeing Mr. Straus again, and hoped that the visit would be a permanent one.

The sultan added that he understood the American delegation to the rank of an ambassador, a sultan who, he said, he served, was also being carefully considered by the Ottoman government.

Activity in French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Soleil publishes a dispatch from Toulon, which says that Vice Admiral Pourcel, who is now at Tunis with M. Lockroy, minister of marine, will return immediately to Toulon, where orders have been received to speedily prepare the armored cruisers Admiral Duroc, Admiral Jeanne, Jeanne and Valmy for active service, and also to send to Brest without delay the largest possible number of gunners to man the forts and batteries.

Turkish Troops Withdrawn.

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 15.—Ismael Bey, the Turkish military governor, this evening informed the administration of the foreign warships that the sultan had ordered the withdrawal of all the Turkish troops in Crete, in compliance with the joint note from Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France.

Alleged Forger Arrested.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—A man about 35 years of age, who gives his name as Antoine Manquette Regien, representing himself as the son of a Philadelphia electrician, has been arrested at Trogan, capital of Austria-Slovenia, for attempting to pass off as a diamond, a piece of glass. He is believed to be one of a gang of skillful international forgers instead of an American.

PLOTTERS AGAINST ROYALTY

FIFTEEN ARRESTS MADE IN ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT.

Italian Anarchists Implicated in the Conspiracy to Assassinate the Emperor of Germany.

Will Be Welcomed at Sea.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—A great fleet of ships will meet Emperor William in the sea of Marmara. The German colony will go by a large steamer.

Flocking to Jerusalem.

Jerusalem, Oct. 15.—The city is already overcrowded with visitors, chiefly Germans, awaiting the arrival of Emperor William.

SPANISH VESSELS CAPTURED.

Admiral Dewey Has Added Five Warships to His Squadron.

New York, Oct. 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: The effective strength of the United States navy has been increased by eight vessels, which were recently captured by Admiral Dewey's squadron, two are credited to the North Atlantic station, and the last two were captured by the fleet of Admiral Dewey.

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD: MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1898

French Socialists Condemn the Military Conspiracy.

PLOT RUMOR RENEWED

DUKE OF ORLEANS ON THE LIST OF SUSPECTS.

Dedication of a Monument to Soldiers Who Fell in the Franco-Prussian War Causes a Demonstration in Favor of the Army—Activity of French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The dedication of a monument to the soldiers of France who fell in the Franco-Prussian war, which took place today at Chaumont, capital of the department of Haute-Marne, General Chanale, the minister of war, presided, furnishing an opportunity for a demonstration in favor of the army, which many socialists seized, marching past the monument shouting, "Vive l'armée."

The socialist party met today and denounced governmental interference with the right to strike. A resolution was adopted declaring "that the whole socialist revolutionary party is united in defense of the republic and will not permit the military conspiracy to lay its hands upon the liberty of the people."

The socialists announce that they have organized a vigilance committee, to frustrate the military conspiracy against the republic.

The arrival of the Duke of Orleans at Brussels has rekindled the rumor that a military coup was attempted.

The young English Duke of Manchester, who has just reached Paris from Australia, has been linked with the movement by certain newspapers, but he protests that he is merely a tourist.

Sultan Welcomes Our Minister.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—The sultan today gave an audience to Ambassador Straus, the new United States minister, with the customary ceremonies of reception, which was of the most cordial character. His majesty expressed pleasure at seeing Mr. Straus again, and hoped that the visit would be a permanent one.

The sultan added that he understood the American delegation to the rank of an ambassador, a sultan who, he said, he served, was also being carefully considered by the Ottoman government.

Activity in French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Soleil publishes a dispatch from Toulon, which says that Vice Admiral Pourcel, who is now at Tunis with M. Lockroy, minister of marine, will return immediately to Toulon, where orders have been received to speedily prepare the armored cruisers Admiral Duroc, Admiral Jeanne, Jeanne and Valmy for active service, and also to send to Brest without delay the largest possible number of gunners to man the forts and batteries.

Turkish Troops Withdrawn.

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 15.—Ismael Bey, the Turkish military governor, this evening informed the administration of the foreign warships that the sultan had ordered the withdrawal of all the Turkish troops in Crete, in compliance with the joint note from Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France.

Alleged Forger Arrested.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—A man about 35 years of age, who gives his name as Antoine Manquette Regien, representing himself as the son of a Philadelphia electrician, has been arrested at Trogan, capital of Austria-Slovenia, for attempting to pass off as a diamond, a piece of glass. He is believed to be one of a gang of skillful international forgers instead of an American.

PLOTTERS AGAINST ROYALTY

FIFTEEN ARRESTS MADE IN ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT.

Italian Anarchists Implicated in the Conspiracy to Assassinate the Emperor of Germany.

Will Be Welcomed at Sea.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—A great fleet of ships will meet Emperor William in the sea of Marmara. The German colony will go by a large steamer.

Flocking to Jerusalem.

Jerusalem, Oct. 15.—The city is already overcrowded with visitors, chiefly Germans, awaiting the arrival of Emperor William.

SPANISH VESSELS CAPTURED.

Admiral Dewey Has Added Five Warships to His Squadron.

New York, Oct. 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: The effective strength of the United States navy has been increased by eight vessels, which were recently captured by Admiral Dewey's squadron, two are credited to the North Atlantic station, and the last two were captured by the fleet of Admiral Dewey.

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD: MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1898

French Socialists Condemn the Military Conspiracy.

PLOT RUMOR RENEWED

DUKE OF ORLEANS ON THE LIST OF SUSPECTS.

Dedication of a Monument to Soldiers Who Fell in the Franco-Prussian War Causes a Demonstration in Favor of the Army—Activity of French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The dedication of a monument to the soldiers of France who fell in the Franco-Prussian war, which took place today at Chaumont, capital of the department of Haute-Marne, General Chanale, the minister of war, presided, furnishing an opportunity for a demonstration in favor of the army, which many socialists seized, marching past the monument shouting, "Vive l'armée."

The socialist party met today and denounced governmental interference with the right to strike. A resolution was adopted declaring "that the whole socialist revolutionary party is united in defense of the republic and will not permit the military conspiracy to lay its hands upon the liberty of the people."

The socialists announce that they have organized a vigilance committee, to frustrate the military conspiracy against the republic.

The arrival of the Duke of Orleans at Brussels has rekindled the rumor that a military coup was attempted.

The young English Duke of Manchester, who has just reached Paris from Australia, has been linked with the movement by certain newspapers, but he protests that he is merely a tourist.

Sultan Welcomes Our Minister.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—The sultan today gave an audience to Ambassador Straus, the new United States minister, with the customary ceremonies of reception, which was of the most cordial character. His majesty expressed pleasure at seeing Mr. Straus again, and hoped that the visit would be a permanent one.

The sultan added that he understood the American delegation to the rank of an ambassador, a sultan who, he said, he served, was also being carefully considered by the Ottoman government.

Activity in French Navy.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Soleil publishes a dispatch from Toulon, which says that Vice Admiral Pourcel, who is now at Tunis with M. Lockroy, minister of marine, will return immediately to Toulon, where orders have been received to speedily prepare the armored cruisers Admiral Duroc, Admiral Jeanne, Jeanne and Valmy for active service, and also to send to Brest without delay the largest possible number of gunners to man the forts and batteries.

Turkish Troops Withdrawn.

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 15.—Ismael Bey, the Turkish military governor, this evening informed the administration of the foreign warships that the sultan had ordered the withdrawal of all the Turkish troops in Crete, in compliance with the joint note from Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France.

Alleged Forger Arrested.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—A man about 35 years of age, who gives his name as Antoine Manquette Regien, representing himself as the son of a Philadelphia electrician, has been arrested at Trogan, capital of Austria-Slovenia, for attempting to pass off as a diamond, a piece of glass. He is believed to be one of a gang of skillful international forgers instead of an American.

PLOTTERS AGAINST ROYALTY

FIFTEEN ARRESTS MADE IN ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT.

Italian Anarchists Implicated in the Conspiracy to Assassinate the Emperor of Germany.

Will Be Welcomed at Sea.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—A great fleet of ships will meet Emperor William in the sea of Marmara. The German colony will go by a large steamer.

Flocking to Jerusalem.

Jerusalem, Oct. 15.—The city is already overcrowded with visitors, chiefly Germans, awaiting the arrival of Emperor William.

SPANISH VESSELS CAPTURED.

Admiral Dewey Has Added Five Warships to His Squadron.

New York, Oct. 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: The effective strength of the United States navy has been increased by eight vessels, which were recently captured by Admiral Dewey's squadron, two are credited to the North Atlantic station, and the last two were captured by the fleet of Admiral Dewey.

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.

Butler Unpleasant.

New York Sun: "No, I don't object to my wife taking pictures," said the man who had been in the bath, but we have no dark room, and when the plates do feel so cold and slimy."

Believed in the Theory.

Chicago Tribune: "Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Yes," replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.